

Aarhus – Kiel Workshop 2013

12 – 13 December 2013

Hosted by the Kiel Institute for the World Economy

Venue: Großer Lesesaal, ZBW

Thursday, 12 December

11.00h – 13.00h: Session I

Sanne Hiller

Export Market Exit and Firm Survival:
Theory and First Evidence

Eckhardt Bode

New Economic Geography Meets Spatial Econometrics: Regional Wage Interdependencies in the US

Kaleb Girma Abreha

A Dynamic Model of Firm Activities:
Evidence from Danish Manufacturing

Toni Glaser

Protectionism as Insurance

13.00h – 14.00h: Lunch and discussion

14.00h – 16.00h: Session II

Robert Gold

Trade Integration and Political Radicalization

Sylvanus Afesorgbor

Revisiting the Effectiveness of African Economic Integration. A Meta-Analytic Review and Comparative Estimation Methods

Christiane Krieger-Boden

The Pros and Cons of Globalization – Towards a Research-Based Policy Mission

Erik Strøjer Madsen

Advertising and Concentration in the Brewing Industry

16.00h – 16.30h: Coffee and discussion

18.00h: Weihnachtsmarkt

20.15h: Dinner at Ratskeller

Friday, 13 December

09.30h – 11.00h: Session III

Horst Raff	Inventories and Trade Volatility: The Role of Export and Import Intermediaries
Allan Sørensen	Unsolicited Exports: Some Theory and Stylized Facts
Zhan Qu	Why Reverse Bullwhip Effect (BWE) May Occur: A New Analytical Model of BWE

11.00h – 11.15h: Coffee and discussion

11.15h – 12.45h: Session IV

Anders Laugesen	Trade Liberalisation and Vertical Integration
Erasmus Kersting	Vertical Integration and Supplier Finance
Erdal Yalcin	Credit Constraints in International Trade and the Role of Public Instruments

12.45h – 13.30h: Lunch and discussion