

KIEL INSTITUTE for the World Economy

Advanced Studies in International Economic Policy Research Aug. 13, 2020 - May 31, 2021

Outline:

- 36-year old first-rate academic and applied training in global economic research;
- compact high-level courses in a broad area of international economics, taught by leading scholars from various universities;
- top conditions for concrete own research, personalized career guidance, and working closely with experienced researchers of the Kiel Institute;
- designed for economists holding a university degree who are interested in a career with international organisations, domestic policy and academic institutions, international corporations etc.

Courses:

Macroeconomics in Open Economies

Trade Policy Analysis

International Macroeconomics and Monetary Economics

Topics in International Trade

Analytics and Policy Design of International Migration

Forecasting Methods

Applied Microeconometric Methods

Topics in Development Economics

Empirical Methods in International Economics

Professors:

Paraskevi Pappa (Madrid)

Gabriel Felbermayr (Kiel)

Gaudi Eggertsson (Brown)

Pol Antras (Harvard)

Oded Stark (Bonn)

Jens Boysen-Hogrefe (Kiel)

Sourafel Girma (Nottingham)

Chris Udry (Northwestern)

Peter Egger (Zurich)

Internet info <http://www.ifw-kiel.de/education/asp>